

CHRISTMAS IN THE MOVIES

To play this game, you will give a ticket to the first person to holler out the name of the Christmas movie or special you are describing. At the end, do a draw for a prize!

In this movie, an eight years old boy is left at home by his parents, when they leave with the rest of the family for Christmas holidays to Paris.

HOME ALONE

An obnoxious and bumbling but well-meaning man attempts to help Santa Claus find a successor. Failure would mean that there would be no Christmas.

ERNEST SAVES CHRISTMAS

A miserly old man learns the error of his ways through the intervention of the ghost of his former partner and of three spirits in this faithful adaptation of the Dickens classic.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

An angel helps a despairingly frustrated man by showing the profoundly positive impact he had on his community.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE

Repelled by the commercialism he sees around him, a young boy tries to find the true meaning of Christmas.

A CHARLIE BROWN CHRISTMAS

These puppet characters tell their version of the classic tale of an old and bitter miser's redemption on Christmas Eve.

A MUPPET CHRISTMAS CAROL

This movie features a town of tiny people, all faced with the horror of nearly losing Christmas to a big mean, green guy.

HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS

This movie teaches all folks, young and old, that deep within our hearts, there really is a Santa Claus.
