

Handbag Treasure Hunt

The handbag treasure hunt is you have everyone grab there purse. You then tell them that you will give them a ticket for each item that you call. But the trick is they have to be the first person to show you in order to get the ticket. You just go through a list and this is what I ask for:

- a $10.00 bill
- a penny
- a checkbook
- a credit card
- a pen
- lipstick
- chapstick
- a brush
- a comb
- a picture
- a picture of their child
- a picture of a child that does not belong to you
- car keys
- some type of pain reliever
- something that does not belong to you
- condoms or other means of birth control

Add as many different items as you like!
